Saab Automobile AB in bankruptcy; information on warranties

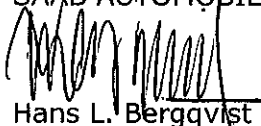

Saab Automobile AB in bankruptcy has been declared in bankruptcy 19 December 2011. Hans L. Bergqvist, Advokatfirman Delphi, and Anne-Marie Pouteaux, Wistrand Advokatbyrå, have been appointed bankruptcy receivers.

On 22 December 2011 a statement was made by Saab Automobile AB in bankruptcy that reimbursements for all types of warranty (new car warranty, perforation warranty, service campaign work, Goodwill, emission warranty etc.) was suspended until further notice.

The receivers in Saab Automobile AB in bankruptcy hereby confirm this statement. This means that there will be no reimbursements for warranty coverage for neither vehicles in use nor unregistered vehicles in stock. All claims for warranty coverage will be treated as an ordinary debt in the bankruptcy estate, accordingly.

It should be noted that this statement does not apply to warranty claims relating to parts delivered by Saab Automobile Parts AB, which company has not been declared bankrupt.
